Library

- Smyrna History Bill Marchione's history class is off to a great start. He had 66 attendees. Also, a journalism student from KSU attended and took pictures for a class assignment. The series continues each Monday night at 6:30 p.m. through March 12 in the Library Meeting Room.
- Chocolate Olympics The Tweens are going for GOLD (actually chocolate) on Wednesday, February 14, at 6:00 p.m. in the Library Meeting Room. There will be treats and prizes. The event is for 8-12 year-olds.
- Cobb Library Closures The news about the possibility of Cobb County Public Library closures and/or mergers has stirred up Smyrna Library customers. They have been asking our staff how the news affects Smyrna Library. We have explained to customers that Smyrna Library is not part of the Cobb system and is not part of the closure proposal. We have also passed out bookmarks with contact information for Cobb County Commissioners and encouraged them to contact their commissioner for more information. A detailed article about the library closure plan appears on the front page of the MDJ on 2/8/2018.

Fire Department
